

Daniel O. Chute, CIH, CSP

President

EDUCATION

M.S., Industrial Hygiene, Texas A&M University
B.S., Environmental Health, Old Dominion University

CERTIFICATION AND LICENSURE

Certified Industrial Hygienist, Comprehensive Practice, American Board of Industrial Hygiene
Certified Safety Professional, Comprehensive Practice, Board of Certified Safety Professionals
Registered Environmental Assessor, State of California
Asbestos Licensure: Inspector, Management Planner, Project Designer, Project Monitor (Virginia, Maryland, North Carolina, West Virginia)
EPA Lead Accreditation - Project Supervisor, Inspector, Risk Assessor

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

ATRIUM Environmental Health and Safety Services

2005-Present

President

Provides technical direction, project support, field investigations, and subject matter expertise on environmental health, safety and industrial hygiene for various industrial and commercial clients, including facility management companies, building owners, insurance carriers, and attorneys.

MasiMax Resources, Inc.

1992-2005

(Business unit formerly operated as DynCorp Environmental Health and Safety Services; 1992-2000)

Director, Environmental Health and Safety Services

Developed and managed business in environmental health and safety, including work with private and commercial clients. Managed work site inspections, sample collection and analysis for compliance determinations, preparation of written compliance programs, design and monitoring of abatement actions for hazardous materials, and development and presentation of training programs.

Tracor Technology Resources

1986 to 1992

Director, Industrial Hygiene Services

Managed nationwide comprehensive industrial hygiene consulting practice. Supported field operations in three offices, with a staff of approximately 25 professionals. Led several

Daniel O. Chute, CIH, CSP

President

milestone efforts, including industrial hygiene/safety components of HUD Lead Paint Abatement Demonstration Program; the first statewide asbestos survey completed in the United States, with over 3500 buildings inspected in Maryland. Managed Federal Highway lead paint containment and waste collection and disposal research for abrasive blasting of bridges; FEMA disaster assistance response; the first design and monitoring of lead shielding removal in VA Medical Centers; and the first facility-wide IH support contract for Newport News Shipbuilding.

Newport News Shipbuilding

1981 to 1986

Senior Industrial Hygienist

Conducted surveys and directed projects to evaluate and control potential health hazards in complex manufacturing environment with approximately 30,000 employees. Managed routine coordination of activities with other professionals (e.g., medical, safety, environmental, production supervisors).

Norfolk Naval Shipyard

1980

Industrial Hygienist

City of Norfolk, VA Department of Environmental Services/Public Health

1977 to 1979

Water Quality Specialist

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS

American Industrial Hygiene Association (AIHA)

- President, Potomac Section, 1993-94
- Professional Development Conference Chairman, 1991
- Chairman, Lead Task Force, 1993-95
- Co-Chairman, Maryland IH Council, 1991-92
- PDC Instructor, 1992 AIHCE, Boston, MA
- Program Presenter, 1992 Lead Paint Symposium
- Tellers Committee, 1996 to Present
- Instructor, Professional Development Programs, 1996 to Present

Steel Structures Painting Council (SSPC)

- Industrial Hygiene Program Chairman, 1992 Lead Conference
- Hazardous Waste Committee
- Safety and Health Committee
- Containment Committee
- Contractor Certification Committee
- Tutorial Instructor; Industrial Lead Paint Removal

Daniel O. Chute, CIH, CSP

President

Summary of Asbestos-Related Experience Highlights

- Has conducted inspections, testing and delivered training in accordance with established industry protocol since 1980.
- Completed McCrone Institute training in optical microscopy for PLM analysis of bulk samples.
- EPA-accredited training credentials maintained continuously since 1987. Currently maintain EPA-accredited certificates as Inspector, Management Planner and Project Designer.
- Active licensure (VA) as Inspector, Management Planner, Project Designer and Project Monitor.
- Prepared abatement project design specifications for over 20 major abatement projects in VA Medical Centers.
- Project Manager for asbestos testing and inspection contract for National Capitol Region, US General Services Administration (Federal Facilities in Washington, DC area)
- Asbestos Training Instructor, US Department of State Domestic Environmental and Safety, 2003-present.
- Served as Instructor in EPA-accredited Asbestos Training Programs since 1988
- Conducted FEMA Asbestos Inspections and Damage Reports, 1988-1992
- Managed Maryland's first Statewide Industrial Hygiene Services Contracts for asbestos removal inspections, 1987-1990.
- Technical management of first statewide asbestos inspection contract in US, conducted in Maryland, 1986-1988. Received letter of commendation from Maryland DGS Program Manager, Joel Matz, for successful effort.
- Conducted over 100 comprehensive Loss Control Surveys of Asbestos Abatement Contractors throughout US for Reliance National Insurance, 1995-2000.
- Managed and completed first comprehensive asbestos inspection and survey for US Capitol and Architect of the Capitol facilities, 2000-2002.
- Extensive inspection experience in public and private facilities, schools, hospitals, industrial sites, military, laboratory, historical buildings and ships for construction, renovation or demolition.