Introduction

The House Rules for the 112th Congress call for greater transparency and accessibility to legislative documents.

Specifically, two provisions were added to the rules by House Resolution 5:

- Clause 3 of Rule XXIX provides that a measure or matter will have been considered as having been publicly “available” within the meaning of the rules if it was publicly available in electronic form at a location designated by the Committee on House Administration.
- Clause 4(d)(1)(E) of Rule X directs the Committee on House Administration to establish and maintain standards for documents made available in electronic form by the House and its committees.

The intention of these two provisions is to ensure that Members and the public have easy access to bills, resolutions, and amendments considered in committee and by the House. According to Chairman Dreier’s statements before the House, “The standard for electronic documents is intended to evolve over time. While the standard may initially include more static formats such as a searchable PDF, the intention is to eventually transition to more flexible structured data formats, such as XML, as the tools become available to ease the creation and ensure the integrity of House documents. With respect to availability, the provision is intended to place electronic distribution on par with traditional printing; rather than entirely replace it. Finally, the rule contemplates a singular location that will direct Members and the public to the text of measures to be considered by the House and its committees.”¹

The Speaker and House Leadership have directed the Clerk to create a centralized repository to provide access to documents that will be considered in committee and by the House. For 2011, the Committee on Rules is providing access to legislative text being considered by the House at <http://rules.house.gov/billsthisweek.aspx?NewsID=337>, and each committee is posting documents under consideration by the committee on their own websites. In 2012, the Office of the Clerk made available the site, <http://docs.house.gov> which provides access to legislative text being considered by the House, and in 2013, the site started to provide access to legislative text being considered by House committees.

The Committee on House Administration, as directed by House rules², has established standards³ for posting House and committee documents and data electronically. As part of the standards, the Office of the Clerk has been directed to, “...publish and maintain naming standards for each document [required to be posted online as outlined in the standards]”. These standards will facilitate automated searching and uploading of such documents. Files will be posted using permanent URL links. These links will facilitate outside and committee usage of these files. In addition, permanent URL links will allow archived committee web sites to maintain functionality⁴.” This document describes the naming standards for electronic files for congressional documents covered under the aforementioned standards adopted by the Committee on House Administration on December 16, 2011. These naming standards are used on docs.house.gov.

The goals in the naming conventions include:

- Reduce duplicate document names in the committee repository;
- Enable search and search engine capabilities;
- Allow the document’s name to be self-identifying.

Where possible, the naming standards follow existing naming conventions used by the Government Printing Office’s Federal Digital System (FDSys).

Linking to documents on GPO or THOMAS

If a document has already been published and posted on GPO’s FDSys System (<http://www.gpo.gov/fdsys/>), it is acceptable and encouraged to link to this location on docs.house.gov or a committee website.

Identifying Members

Where it is necessary to have a member identifier in the file name, the Member's Biographical ID number or Bioguide ID should be used. The current Members and their Bioguide IDs are listed in the appendix. For former Members, see <http://bioguide.congress.gov>.

The benefits of using the Biographical ID number include having a unique identifier within and across Congresses, it is already in use by organizations in and outside of the Legislative Branch, and it avoids any duplicate document names due to duplicate or similar Member names.

Updates to the conventions

The conventions in this document will be updated when it is deemed necessary to add additional document types, add additional clarification to the naming conventions, or other circumstances.

| Updates to this document | Version | Notes |
|--------------------------|---------------|---|
| 8/29/2014 | Version 2 | Updated to account for privileged reports from the Committees on the Budget, House Administration, and Ethics. Added a new convention for general documents that are not associated with a meeting. Added new convention for transcripts and a single vote file with multiple votes. Added new conventions for the sections of a Hearing Transcript document that were not accounted for in previous versions of this document. Removed convention for originally reported measures as it is not being used – other conventions can be used. Added naming convention for committee activity reports to reflect change in House Rules in the 113 th Congress. Corrected typographical errors found in prior versions. |
| 4/24/2012 | Version 1.2.1 | updated to correct an omission of the member's Bioguide IDs on the sample conventions for the Committee on Appropriations on page 16; updated to correct typographical errors. |
| 2/15/2012 | Version 1.2 | updated based on discussions with committees the week of January 23, 2012. |

*Whether your committee uses the terms “Chairman’s Mark”, “Manager’s Amendment”, or “an Amendment in the Nature of the Substitute”, assign the amendment a number and use the above naming convention.

Some committees number their amendments using the amendment tree while others use a unique identifier unrelated to the amendment tree. The name convention provides for this flexibility.

Documents in general support of the meeting

This naming convention would be used for documents that support a meeting (hearing, markup or other) where the document does not have a naming convention already described in this document.

For example, for a meeting for purposes of considering legislation (markup), the Ways and Means committee publishes the following documents (as well as other documents): 1) estimated revenue effects of the chair's amendment and 2) a section-by-section analysis. These documents would be considered general support documents of the meeting and would be assigned a document name using the convention below.

CONVENTION: Collection Type of HMTG, followed by hyphen, followed by Congress number, followed by hyphen, followed by either committee code or subcommittee code, followed by meeting type abbreviation, followed by hyphen, followed by YYYYMMDD, followed by SD (support document), followed by number determined by committee.

Other Documents

These documents should be printed at GPO; therefore a link should be included on the repository. If the document is being posted before processing at GPO, use the conventions below to name the document.

Committee Rules

CONVENTION: CollectionType of Committee Print (CPRT), followed by hyphen, followed by Congress number, followed by HPRT, followed by committee code, followed by description of “CommitteeRules”.

SAMPLE: CPRT-113-HPRT-AG00-CommitteeRules.pdf

Activity Reports

These documents should be printed at GPO; therefore a link should be included on the repository.

If your committee is posting pre-GPO-published activity reports, use the naming convention below.

When the House Rules called for quarterly reports, use the following convention:

CONVENTION: Collection Type of CPRT, followed by hyphen, followed by Congress number, followed by hrpt, followed by the word “activities”, followed by the letter “Q” and the quarter number, followed by the committee code.

Sample: CPRT-113HRPT-activities-Q1-AG00.pdf

When the House Rules call for end of the session report, use the following convention:

CONVENTION: Collection Type of CPRT, followed by hyphen, followed by Congress number, followed by hrpt, followed by the word “activities”, followed by the session of Congress the report covers followed by the committee code.

Sample: CPRT-113HRPT-activities-1-AG00.pdf and CPRT-113HRPT-activities-2-AG00.pdf

Committee Prints

These documents should be printed at GPO; therefore a link should be included on the repository.

Committee Reports

Committee Report with no report number

These documents should be printed at GPO; therefore a link should be included on the repository. If the document is posted before processing at GPO, use the convention below to name the document.

CONVENTION:

- CollectionType of HRPT, followed by hyphen, followed by legis-num (measure type abbreviation+number), that is being covered in the report.

SAMPLE:

- HRPT-112-HR123.pdf
- HRPT-112-HR123-p2.pdf for part two of a report

Privileged Reports

Under House Rule XIII, clause 5, some committees can report to the House at any time about certain matters. The reports are referred to as privileged reports or non-legislative reports. Samples of these reports include Rept.112-12 from the Budget Committee, Repts 112-193, 112-194, 112-195, and 112-203 from the Committee on Ethics.

These documents should be printed at GPO; therefore a link should be included on the repository. If the document is being posted before processing at GPO, use the convention below to name the document.

CONVENTION:

- CollectionType of HRPT, followed by hyphen, followed by committee code or subcommittee code, followed by hyphen, followed by brief description.
 - For reports from the Ethics Committee that are relating to matters about a Member of Congress, the brief description should use the Member's BioGuide ID.

SAMPLE:

- If Rept. 112-193 from the Ethics Committee was posted prior to GPO processing, the name would be this: HRPT-SO-C000640.pdf
- If Rept. 112-12 from the Budget Committee was posted prior to GPO processing, the name could be something like this: HRPT-BU-FY11-RevisedBudgetAllocations.pdf

General Documents (not associated with a meeting)

This naming convention should be used for general documents that are not in support of a meeting and the document does not have a naming convention already described in this document.

CONVENTION: Collection Type of HMTG, followed by hyphen, followed by Congress number, followed by hyphen, followed by either committee code or subcommittee code, followed by meeting type abbreviation, followed by hyphen, followed by YYYYMMDD, followed by SD (support document), followed by number determined by committee.

CONVENTION:

- CollectionType of Committee Print (CPRT), followed by hyphen, followed by Congress number, followed by committee code or subcommittee code, followed by hyphen, followed by GD (general document), followed by number determined by committee.

SAMPLE:

- CPRT-112-AG-GD001.pdf (Agriculture Committee)

Document revisions

Document revisions are allowed. The updated document should use the previous document's naming convention followed by a hyphen, the letter U, and the number one to indicate the first update.

| Indefinitely Postponed Senate | ips | This version is a bill or resolution as it was when consideration was suspended with no date specified for continuing its consideration. | Senate House |
| Introduced in Senate | is | This version is a bill or resolution as formally presented by a Member of Congress to a clerk when the Senate is in session. | Senate |
| Laid on Table in House | lth | This version is a bill or resolution as laid on the table which disposes of it immediately, finally, and adversely via a motion without a direct vote on its substance. | House Senate |
| Laid on Table in Senate | lts | This version was laid on the table in the Senate. See also Laid on Table in House. | Senate House |
| Ordered to be Printed House | oph | This version was ordered to be printed by the House. See also Ordered to be Printed Senate. | House |
| Ordered to be Printed Senate | ops | This version was ordered to be printed by the Senate. For example, in the 105th Congress S. 1173 was considered at length by the Senate, returned to the Senate calendar, ordered to be printed. Then its text was inserted into its companion House bill which was passed by the Senate. | Senate |
| Previous Action Vitiating | pav | This version is a bill or resolution as it was when an action previously taken on it was undone or invalidated. For example in the 102nd Congress for H.R. 2321 the Senate action discharging the Energy Committee and amending and passing the bill was vitiated by unanimous consent. The bill was amended, reported, and passed anew. | Senate House |
| Placed on Calendar House | pch | This version is a bill or resolution as placed on one of the five House calendars. It is eligible for floor consideration, but a place on a calendar does not guarantee consideration. | House Senate |

| Legislative Stage | Abbreviation | Definition | Chamber |
| Placed on Calendar Senate | pcs | This version is a bill or resolution as placed on one of the two Senate calendars. It is eligible for floor consideration, but a place on a calendar does not guarantee consideration. | Senate House |
| Public Print | pp | Any bill from the House or Senate may be issued as a public print. If a bill is issued as a Public Print more copies will be printed than are printed for an engrossed version. Public prints also number the amendments made by the last chamber to pass it. Public Prints are typically published by the Senate to show Senate amendments to House bills. They typically contain the text of a House bill, indicating portions struck, plus Senate amendments in italics. They are routinely ordered for appropriations bills, but the Senate occasionally by unanimous consent orders public prints of other significant bills. | Senate House |
| Printed as Passed | pap | This version is a public print of a bill as passed. Generally, appropriation bills receive a PP designation while non-appropriation bills receive a PAP designation. See also Public Print. | Senate House |
| Ordered to be Printed with House Amendment | pwah | This version shows Senate amendments to a House bill. It is similar to a Public Print from the Senate, except that it does not include portions struck, only the Senate amendment in the nature of a substitute in italics. See S. 1059 from the 106th Congress for an example of this bill version on a Senate bill. | House Senate |
| Referred with Amendments House | rah | This version was referred with amendments to the House. | House |
| Referred with Amendments Senate | ras | This version was referred with amendments to the Senate. | Senate |
| Reference Change House | rch | An alternate name for this bill version is Referred to Different or Additional House Committee. This version is a bill or resolution as re-referred to a different or additional House committee. It may have been discharged from the committee to which it was originally referred then referred to a different committee, referred to an additional committee sequentially, or reported by the original committee then referred to an additional committee. See S. 1016 for an example of this bill version on a Senate bill. | House Senate |
| Reference Change Senate | rsc | An alternate name for this version is Referred to Different or Additional Senate Committee. This version is a bill or resolution as it was re-referred to a different or additional Senate committee. It may have been discharged from the committee to which it was originally referred then referred to a different committee, referred to an additional committee sequentially, or reported by the original committee then referred to an additional committee. See H.R. 1502 from the 105th Congress for an example of this bill version on a House bill. | Senate House |
| Received in House | rdh | An alternate name for this bill version is Received in House from Senate. This version is a bill or resolution as passed or agreed to in the Senate which has been sent to and received in the House. See the 105th Congress for an example of this bill version. | House |
| Received in Senate | rds | An alternate name for this bill version is Received in Senate from House. This version is a bill or resolution as it was passed or agreed to in the House which has been sent to and received in the Senate. | Senate |
| Re-engrossed Amendment House | reah | This version is a re-engrossed amendment in the House. | House Senate |
| Re-engrossed Amendment Senate | res | This version is a re-engrossed amendment in the Senate. See also Engrossed Amendment Senate. | Senate House |
| Re-enrolled Bill | renr | This version has been re-enrolled. | Joint House Senate |

| Legislative Stage | Abbreviation | Definition | Chamber |
|-------------------------------------|--------------|--|-----------------|
| Referred in House | rhh | An alternate name for this bill version is Referred to House Committee after being Received from Senate. | Referred in Senate | rfs | An alternate name for this bill version is Referred to Senate Committee after being Received from House. This version is a bill or resolution as passed or agreed to in the House which has been sent to, received in the Senate, and referred to Senate committee or committees. | House Senate |
| Reported in House | rh | This version is a bill or resolution as reported by the committee or one of the committees to which it was referred, including changes, if any, made in committee. The bill or resolution is usually accompanied by a committee report which describes the measure, the committee's views on it, its costs, and the changes it proposes to make in existing law. The bill or resolution is then available for floor consideration. This version occurs to both House and Senate bills. | House Senate |
| Referral Instructions House | rih | An alternate name for this bill version is Referred to House Committee with Instructions. This version is a bill or resolution as referred or re-referred to committee with instructions to take some action on it. Invariably in the House the instructions require the committee to report the measure forthwith with specified amendments. | House Senate |
| Referral Instructions Senate | ris | An alternate name for this bill version is Referred to Senate Committee with Instructions. This version is a bill or resolution as referred or re-referred to committee with instructions to take some action on it. Often in the Senate the instructions require the committee to report the measure forth with specified amendments. | Senate House |
| Reported in Senate | rs | This version is a bill or resolution as reported by the committee or one of the committees to which it was referred, including changes, if any, made in committee. The bill or resolution is usually accompanied by a committee report which describes the measure, the committee's views on it, its costs, and the changes it proposes to make in existing law. The bill or resolution is then available for floor consideration. | Senate House |
