H.R. 2799 Committee on Financial Services Expanding Access to Capital Act of 2023

H.R. 7511 Committee on the Judiciary Laken Riley Act

The Committee granted, by a record vote of 9-3, a rule providing for consideration of H.R. 2799, the Expanding Access to Capital Act of 2023, and H.R. 7511, the Laken Riley Act.

The rule provides for consideration of H.R. 2799, the Expanding Access to Capital Act of 2023, under a structured rule. The rule waives all points of order against consideration of the bill. The rule provides one hour of general debate equally divided and controlled by the chair and ranking minority member of the Committee on Financial Services or their respective designees. The rule provides that the amendment in the nature of a substitute recommended by the Committee on Financial Services now printed in the bill, modified by the amendment printed in part A of the report, shall be considered as adopted, and the bill, as amended, shall be considered as read. The rule waives all points of order against provisions in the bill, as amended. The rule makes in order only those further amendments printed in part B of the report. Each amendment shall be considered only in the order printed in the report, may be offered only by a Member designated in the report, shall be considered as read, shall be debatable for the time specified in the report equally divided and controlled by the proponent and an opponent, shall not be subject to amendment, and shall not be subject to a demand for division of the question. The rule waives all points of order against the amendments printed in part B of the report. The rule provides for one motion to recommit.

The rule further provides for consideration of H.R. 7511, the Laken Riley Act, under a closed rule. The rule waives all points of order against consideration of the bill. The rule provides that the bill shall be considered as read. The rule waives all points of order against provisions in the bill. The rule provides one hour of general debate equally divided and controlled by the chair and ranking minority member of the Committee on the Judiciary or their respective designees. The rule provides for one motion to recommit.
