The Committee on House Administration (the Committee) invites you to testify at a full committee hearing. The Committee has jurisdiction over federal elections generally, including federal campaign finance law.<sup>1</sup> As you are aware, the Committee (in conjunction with the Committees on the Judiciary and Oversight and Government Reform) has been investigating ActBlue's donor verification policies and procedures, including the platform's fraud prevention services since October 2023.<sup>2</sup> The Committee is considering potential legislative reforms to address fraudulent and illegal political donations made using online fundraising platforms such as ActBlue.

As Chief Executive Officer of ActBlue, the Committee believes you may have information pertinent to its investigation. Based upon recent reporting, it appears that ActBlue's production to the Committee's July 2025 subpoena was deliberately incomplete.<sup>3</sup> There are outstanding questions about whether and how ActBlue has remedied its "fundamentally unserious approach to fraud prevention."<sup>4</sup> Accordingly, the Committee requests your prompt assistance in providing information vital to its oversight and investigatory duties.<sup>5</sup>

This hearing will begin at 10:00 AM EST on Tuesday, May 19, 2026. Please arrive thirty minutes before the hearing is scheduled to begin and check in with the Committee Clerk in room 1309 of the Longworth House Office Building.

In preparation for the hearing, I ask that you provide the Committee with an electronic copy of your biography, testimony, and completed Truth in Testimony form in PDF format. Please provide your materials no later than 6:00 PM EST on Thursday, May 14, 2026. Along with this information, please indicate the names of staff or associates who may attend the hearing with you so that the Committee may make seating arrangements for them.

While your oral remarks will be limited to five minutes, your written testimony may be as long as you wish. Following your testimony, each Member of the Committee will have the opportunity to ask questions for five minutes.

Please confirm attendance no later than Thursday, April 30, 2026. Thank you for your attention to this matter, and the Committee looks forward to hosting you.

Sincerely,

Bryan Steil
Chairman
Committee on House Administration
