

Mike Cunnington

Mike Cunnington's work in Ohio's political and public policy sector spans nearly two decades. His time in the public sector included stints with the Ohio House of Representatives as a legislative aide, the Summit County Board of Elections as an administrator overseeing the program for Election Day workers, and as a Policy Aide for a Member of Ohio's Congressional delegation. During his time working for Congress, he was also jointly assigned to the Committee on House Administration for a year. Since leaving Congress, he now works in a public affairs capacity with a Northeast Ohio company. Mike is a Masters of Public Administration degree candidate at Cleveland State University, and holds a Bachelors from Ohio University in International Relations.
