COMMITTEE ON ETHICS

June 2023

The Committee on Ethics (Committee) continued to fulfill its responsibilities to advise and educate Members and staff on the laws, rules, and standards of conduct. As a general matter, the Committee's activities in receiving and responding to requests for advice from House Members and staff are conducted on a confidential basis. In June 2023, the Committee responded to over 1,600 phone calls and email messages seeking advice, and participated in many informal meetings with Members, House staff, and outside individuals or groups regarding specific ethics matters. The Committee also received 22 requests for formal advisory opinions.

In accordance with the Rules of the House of Representatives for the 118th Congress, the Committee continued to review and approve requests to accept privately-sponsored, officially-connected travel. The Committee received and reviewed 139 new travel requests in June 2023 for travel beginning in June or later. One hundred and forty-seven House employees traveled on a Committee-approved, privately-sponsored, officially-connected trip within the month of June.

The Committee is required under House rules to offer mandatory annual ethics training to each Member, Delegate, Resident Commissioner, officer, and employee of the House. The Committee is working to modernize its guidance in both substance and method of delivery. The Committee continued to provide training in June through live and on-demand offerings. Seventy-eight individuals attended the live in-person Ethics training hosted by the Committee on June 16. Fifty-six individuals also attended live virtual or in-person training provided by the Committee at the request of four offices and committees. The calendar of live in-person training opportunities is available here.

The Committee released no general advisories or pink sheets in June 2023. Prior general advisories and pink sheets are available here.

Pursuant to Committee Rule 7, the Committee released one public statement regarding Representative George Santos in June 2023. The Statement of the Chair and Ranking Member regarding Rep. Santos is available here. Prior public statements are available here.

The Committee issued a summary of its activities for May 2023 directed to the Committee on House Administration. This statement is publicly available on the Committee on House Administration's website.
