The Honorable Gregg Harper
Chairman
Committee on House Administration
1309 Longworth House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Chairman Harper:

In accordance with the regulations of the Committee on House Administration, I am submitting herewith the monthly report for November 2018 including:

1. Summary of Progress and projected programs;
2. Statement of Expenses under Proposed H. Res 83-1 (115th Congress, 2nd Session); and
3. A listing of Committee employees showing addresses, duties, and gross monthly salaries;
and
4. A report on travel for November 2018 (none for the month of November 2018)

This letter certifies that copies of this report are available to each Member of the Committee on Ethics.

Sincerely,

COMMITTEE ON ETHICS

November 2018

The Committee continued to fulfill its responsibilities to advise and educate Members and staff on the laws, rules, and standards of conduct.¹ As a general matter, the Committee's activities in receiving and responding to requests for advice from House Members and staff are conducted on a confidential basis. The Committee received 16 requests for advisory opinions in November of 2018.

In accordance with the Rules of the House of Representatives for the 115th Congress, the Committee continued to review and approve requests to accept privately-sponsored, officially-connected travel. The Committee received and reviewed 44 new travel requests in November of 2018 for travel beginning in November or later. There were also 96 travelers who went on Committee approved, privately-sponsored, officially connected trips within the month of November.

In addition, the Committee is required under House rules to offer annual ethics training to each Member, Delegate, Resident Commissioner, officer, and employee of the House. Such training is mandatory for all House officers and employees. New Members, officers, and employees must receive training no later than 60 days after beginning service to the House. The Committee continued to provide such training in November of 2018. The Committee provided live training sessions attended by 80 individuals in November of 2018. The Committee also continued to provide training online and through a number of training videos. The Committee also provided live training sessions to 42 Members-Elect and provided live training sessions to 49 Member-Elect designees in November 2018. Additional information about the calendar of upcoming in-person training sessions and online training opportunities is available on the Committee's website at <https://ethics.house.gov/>.

In November 2018, the Committee issued a summary of its activities for October 2018 directed to the Committee on House Administration. This statement is publicly available on the Committee on House Administration's website.

The Committee released four public statements in November 2018 regarding the matter of Representative Mark Meadows, regarding Representative Ruben Kihuen, regarding the passage of legislation to reform the Congressional Accountability Act, and regarding Representative Jim Renacci. Chairwoman Susan W. Brooks and Ranking Member Theodore E. Deutch released the public statements which are available on the Committee's website at <https://ethics.house.gov/>.

¹ An enumeration of those laws and rules as they stood at the end of the 114th Congress is found in H. Rep. 114-910, Summary of Activities, One Hundred Fourteenth Congress, A Report of the Committee on Ethics, 114th Cong., 2d Sess. (January 3, 2017).

The Committee released one general advisory report in November of 2018 regarding Holiday Guidance on the Gift Rule. Prior general advisories are available on the Committee's website at <https://ethics.house.gov/>.
