

Remote Voting by Proxy

Sending Office: Office of the Clerk
Sent By: Cheryl.Johnson@mail.house.gov

Dear Colleague:

I am pleased to announce that pursuant to the provisions in House Resolution 965, the Office of the Clerk is accepting remote voting by proxy letters designating, altering, or revoking proxies throughout the covered period designated by the Speaker on Wednesday, May 20, 2020.

Members can submit proxy letters to Clerk_Proxy@housemail.house.gov.

To ensure that letters are received and processed via email, you must send them using an official House email address. In addition, a Member seeking to vote by proxy must then send the dated and signed hard copy of the letter to

Office of the Clerk
H-154, U.S. Capitol
Washington, DC 20515-6601

The following resources on HouseNet will help get you started with this process:

- Remote Voting by Proxy page on HouseNet
- Quick Guide to Remote Voting by Proxy

For more information, please refer to the Remote Voting by Proxy Regulations submitted by House Committee on Rules Chairman McGovern in the Congressional Record on Friday, May 15, 2020.

Sincerely,

Cheryl L. Johnson
Clerk of the House